What We Believe | Old German Baptist Brethren Church, New

The Baptist concept of the priesthood of all believers indicates that any believer priest authorized by the local congregation can perform baptisms, not just a pastor or someone who is ordained. In most Baptist churches, the actual practice is for the pastor or a church staff member to perform baptisms. Some Baptists have insisted that only those who have been “called to preach” should

Forest Baptist Church | To know Him to make Him known

Southern Baptist polity views these resolutions as expressions of opinions representative of the messengers attending the meeting. They are not binding upon any individual church or successive Convention. Generally speaking, resolutions are snapshots of views widely held among Southern Baptists at the time and in the social context in which they are passed.
